Thomas Beck (Photo 1 , Photo 2 , Photo 3 , Photo 4)

Tom was the son of Edward Beck and Caroline Coolen. He was born on 18 July 1876 and died in 1948. He married Clemence Christian, daughter of William Christian and Isabel Coolen on 24 November 1903 and they had six children. Contributed by Kathleen Coolen and Elizabeth (Church) Young granddaughter.

Scott Beck

Scott Beck was the son of Isiah Beck (of Lunenburg County) and Frances Knickle. He was 18 December 1888 . His father died sometime before 1895 when his mother Ellen married James H. Hardiman. Contributed by Michael (half great nephew).

Marian Beck, William Christian and Elizabeth Beck

Marian and Elizabeth Beck were the children of Thomas and Clemence Beck. Marian was born in Prospect on 17 May 1908 , and Elizabeth (or Bess) was born in 1911. They are standing with their grandfather William Christian, son of John Christian and Elizabeth White, who was born 19 September 1849 . This picture looks like it was taken sometime in the 1920s as Bess looks like she is ten or eleven. Marian Beck married David Doherty in 1931, and died in 1994. Contributed by Elizabeth (Church) Young, daughter of Elizabeth Beck.

The Beck Family

Shown in this picture is Clemence (Christian) Beck daughter of William Christian and Isabel Coolen. Along with her are her two sons William Beck and Percival Beck, along with Percival's first wife Josephine McGrath. Contributed by Elizabeth (Church) Christian.

Thomas Beck and Clemence Christian

Thomas Beck was the son of Edward Beck and Caroline Coolen, and his wife was Clemence Christian, daughter of William Christian and Isabel Coolen. This picture shows them at their winter home in White's Lake. The location of this house is where a present empty lot stands just off the main Prospect Road, before you come to the Petro Canada Station on your way into Halifax, on the right side of the road. The Beck's would come up the bay during the winter. This picture was taken sometime before 1948, as Thomas Beck past away in that year. Contributed by Elizabeth (Church) Young.
